

805 LIVING

NOVEMBER 2006

Give

REDS, WHITES, AND YOU

Back

A family-friendly bounty of Thanksgiving wines for your celebration.

Taste ^{WINE}

By Anthony Head

DeLoach 2004 Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley ($18) is grand, elegant, and undervalued. This 100-percent pinot from Sonoma is also juicy with cranberry and black cherry and a hint of tobacco. Smooth and balanced with a nice lingering finish, it may be just good enough to show up the big bird.

Circulation: 20,000 monthly readers