

DENVERPOST.com

APRIL 12, 2006

Winning Lamb recipes

For a sophisticated Easter dinner that doesn't mask the meat

Wine ideas: Exotic and rich, this dish needs a wine that can stand up to it but not overpower - a perfect excuse to pull out a pinot noir. Check out Hangtime, if you can find it, an Oregon pinot that's a bargain at about $15; also look for French Rabbit, a new wine that comes in an environmentally (and wine-) friendly paperboard Tetra Pak. At $10 per liter, it's a steal.