Idôl Vodka

Idôl Vodka is made using Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes from Burgundy. This isn't a grape-flavored vodka, but rather one made from the alcohol produced when the grapes are distilled seven times (versus the typical three or four). That, together with being filtered five times, creates a smooth beverage with a unique bouquet and a long, soft finish.

Price: $38

Apple-ation Apple Brandy

Apple-ation features aromas and flavors of fresh apple pie and is a great choice for a cool fall evening sitting next to the fire. Winemaker Guy Davis of Davis Family Vineyards strays from typical brandy-making methods by leaving the apple solids (peels included) with the juice during fermentation, cooking and ageing to intensify flavor.

Price: $35

The Glenlivet Nàdurra

Nàdurra is Gaelic for "natural" and refers to the fact this Scotch is bottled at natural cask strength and produced without chill filtration. This makes it the closest thing to drinking straight from a cask at The Glenlivet distillery. It is a small batch single malt that is aged a minimum of sixteen years and has a distinct, honeyed taste.

Price: $60

Stoli Blueberri

This new addition to the Stolichnaya family of flavored vodkas was the top choice amongst eleven possible new flavors tested by a bartender focus group. Stoli adds fruit juices prior to filtration to create the world's first
