

BOISSET
FAMILY ESTATES

REDUCING CARBON EMISSIONS THROUGH INNOVATION

CARBON FOOTPRINT

The carbon footprint of a wine is the amount of carbon dioxide, or greenhouse gases, created as a result of the production of a wine throughout its entire life cycle, including production of the wine and package, transportation, and recycling or disposal. By reducing the carbon footprint of a wine, we hope to do our part to help reduce the wine world's impact on the environment.

